

Name: _____

Date: _____

Subject-Verb Agreement

A verb should go with the naming part of the sentence.

When the naming part of a sentence tells about one you must add 's' to the verb:

A girl reads a book.

When the naming part of a sentence tells about more than one, meaning is in plural, the verb stays the same:

Girls read a book.

Direction:

Circle the correct verb that matches the naming part of the sentence.

1. The rabbit (find, finds) a carrot.
2. The moms (pick, picks) up the kids.
3. The coach (say, says) we can run.
4. The bird (see, sees) the berries.
5. The kids (hear, hears) the trumpet.
6. The teacher (give, gives) out stickers.
7. Many teams (get, gets) a prize.

8. The deer (drink, drinks) the water.
9. Santa (give, gives) him a gift.
10. The child (get, gets) a coin.
11. The planes (make, makes) loud noises.
12. Pigs (like, likes) to play in the mud.
13. The ducks (swim, swims) in the pond.
14. The sun (shine, shines) brightly.
15. The baby (spill, spills) the milk.